We Would See Jesus. John 12:20-22. What a motto! I trust that you didn't come to hear me today, but to hear from Jesus, and to see Him in His Word! Do you go to a Christian concert in order to 'see' that quartet, or to see Jesus? You know that person in the church you love so very much, and you overflow with respect for.

Certain Greeks approached Philip one day in Jerusalem. Presumably they had heard about the Savior from others, and, impressed by what they had heard about him, they now desired to spend some time with him. They wanted to get to know him personally. "Sir," they requested, "we would see Jesus." (John 12:21.).

30 Oct 1996 . John 12:20,21 – Now among those who went up to worship at the feast were some Greeks. So these came to Philip who was from Bethsaida in Galilee, and said to him, "Sir, we wish to see Jesus." Philip went and told Andrew; Andrew went with Philip and they told Jesus. At last I've worked my way through.

18 Mar 2008 . They came to Philip and said to him 'Sir, we wish to see Jesus!'" Now you may remember that at this time in John's Gospel the Pharisees had already begun to complain to each other about Jesus. In fact, in the preceding passage the Pharisees lamented, "Look how the whole world has gone after him.

22 Mar 2015 . I like the way this passage starts off. “Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” If I was stronger, I'd turn this pulpit around and show you the plaque on the inside that reads, “Sir, we would see Jesus,” which is the King James translation of this passage.[1] Hopefully, at times, Jesus is experienced in our worship (as well as.

2 Apr 2000 . Now there were some Greeks among those who went up to worship at the Feast. Jesus has... • love in his heart • mercy in his eyes • grace on his lips • healing in his hands • power in his spirit • forgiveness in his blood

20 May 2017 . The woman entered our church office on an early March afternoon and sat wordlessly in an armchair. “Is there something we can do to help you?” we asked. “I want to sit in the church,” she replied timidly, her voice barely louder than a whisper. We happily accompanied her to the Sanctuary and watched.

22:17 September 12 Read John 12:20-26 "Sir, we wish to see Jesus" v. 21 "Where is Jesus?" I asked my three year old daughter. I was expecting her to either say, "In my heart", or "In Heaven". But her answer surprised me. In reference to her Children's Bible, she said, "He's in the Book." There is no substitute for a firsthand.

I cannot see, I cannot feel, / For light, for heat, I must appeal / To Jesus! / 'He died, He lives, He reigns, He pleads, / There's love in all His acts and deeds, / All, all a guilty sinner needs / In Jesus! / 'Though some should scoff and some should blame, / I'll go, in spite of fear and shame, / I'll go to Him, because His name.

16 Mar 2015 . If I'm honest, there are several things I wish Jesus had never said or done. In last week's Gospel, for example, did he have to bring up the snake on a pole? Did he really need to curse the fig tree for not having figs out of season? Did he have to call the Syrophenician...

22 Mar 2015 . Thesis. * This sermon is an adaptation of an old folktale, The Rabbi's Gift. I used a variety of sources for this telling, including my memories of having seen it presented several decades ago. The origins of the story are attributed to Francis Dorff and also to M. Scott Peck, although the story is likely older than.

22 May 2015 . "We wish to see Jesus" (Jn 12:21) – some Greeks who had come to Jerusalem appealed to the Apostle Philip with this question, a question which also resonates in our times. The duty and task of proclaiming the Gospel was and always remains valid for the entire Church, which "is missionary by her very.

“Sir, we wish to see Jesus.” I've always found these words to be arresting. In John's Gospel, they are the words of “some Greeks [who] came to Philip,” a disciple of Jesus. Why did these Greeks want to see Jesus? Did they want an appointment with him? A miracle? A good word? When I encounter this passage I am always.

5 Oct 2011 . Just two short months ago I preached my first sermon as the senior pastor of Mission Road Bible Church. Many emotions competed in my heart that morning. Joy, excitement, fear, and thankfulness were a few. I will never forget that day. But there is a memory of that morning that will always be “engraved.

17 May 2016 . If someone said that to you, what would you do? When my kids ask me a tough question I'm likely to pull out my phone and look it up right away. However, such would not really be helpful in this case. When someone asks us to show them Jesus there are two powerful places to begin: Scripture—we should.

"We Would See Jesus." Words: J. Edgar Park. Music: Jackson Henry. This hymn has an interesting place in The United Methodist Hymnal in that it straddles the lines between an Epiphany song and a song celebrating the life of Jesus. It is possible to sing this at any time during the church year. In addition, while it does not.

22 Mar 2015 . We don't know who they were, those Greeks who went up to worship at the festival. But we know they were human, which is to say, we know they were like us, that they had needs and hopes and longings that were not so different from ours. “Sir, we wish to see Jesus,” they said. They came, as the Psalmist.

22 Mar 2015 . “Sir, we wish to see Jesus”. We hear one of the most extraordinary requests of the entire Christian Bible – from Genesis to Revelation. If there is one single purpose for us to read the Bible, this would be it – to see Jesus, the Word made flesh, the love incarnate. Hearing isn't enough, we have to see, taste,.

10 Jan 2017 . Dear pastors, teachers and church leaders,. We wish to see Jesus (John 12:21). Love, One of your sheep. I spent the day catching up with people, writing, and preparing to teach.
