Descripción

A principis dels anys cinquanta, Matthew Soames, mestre d'una escola rural, i la seva esposa, Callie, passen l'estiu a la granja familiar dels afores de Renfro, Missouri, on van criar les seves quatre enèrgiques filles: la gran, Jessica; Leonie, la més responsable; la indòmita Mathy, que va deixar els estudis per casar-se amb un pilot acrobàtic, i la petita Mary Jo, que va abandonar la granja de molt jove per treballar a la televisió a Nova York. Com cada any, tres de les filles els visiten durant un parell de setmanes. El final de la seva estada permet que els records facin acte de presència: les alegries, decepcions, amors i desenganys que van marcar el pas del temps i que semblen haver dominat la vida de les quatre germanes. Tot i així, més enllà dels esdeveniments passats batega l'amor profund que els ha mantingut units durant tots aquests anys. Quatre germanes, la primera i única novel·la de Jetta Carleton, va ser publicada per primera vegada el 1962. El seu editor, el mític director literari de Knopf, Robert Gottlieb, deia d'ella: «Dels centenars de novel·les que he editat, Quatre germanes és realment l'única que he rellegit diverses vegades des de la seva publicació i, cada cop que la torno a llegir, m'emociona tant com la primera vegada».
