Descripción

Al morir su madre, Yazid reúne en París a todos los hermanos, que viven en la diáspora desde hace años con carreras brillantes, menos al pequeño que se ha unido a los talibanes. Se da cuenta de que nada los une, lo que le lleva a regresar a la calle Darwin de Argel, un lugar donde cohabitaron judíos, musulmanes y cristianos, kabiles y franceses, de los que ya no queda nadie. Necesita recomponer su pasado, saber quién es realmente, la verdad de un origen que se le negó y ocultó, de una vida de olvidos, omisiones y mentiras. Su búsqueda le permitirá poner en orden los meandros de su memoria que va de una infancia marcada por la violencia de la guerra de independencia a la madurez salpicada por la del integrismo islámico, pasando por las desilusiones y desencantos entre una y otra. Rue Darwin es la obra más personal de Boualem Sansal. Al compás que nos descubre una historia desgarradora con una notable carga autobiográfica, nos habla entre la ternura, el humor y la sátira de los elementos que la envuelven como son la corrupción, la pobreza, el tedio, la falta de futuro y la tristeza creciente, en un retrato colorido de su tierra natal a la que tanto ama como le desespera.
